NORTH SIDE HIGH SCHOOL

To a sweet girl
Best of Luck in everything you do. Have fun this summer. Take good care of "Dave."

Twenty-Five Years Of Progress

This is the twenty-fifth anniversary of North Side High School. For a quarter of a century, North Side has offered countless opportunities to those who have had the honor and privilege to work and play under the guidance of our competent, helpful, well-trained faculty. In many ways, North Side has changed, but in many more ways it is still the same institution which opened its doors and its heart to American youth twenty-five years ago.

Our beloved school presents to us a challenge. If we fail to answer its call we shall fail ourselves as well as the school; but if we answer readily with an open mind and an undaunted spirit, we shall be Redskins which North Side will be proud to claim as her own.

So, march on, North Side, and may the next twenty-five years bring with them an increased amount of pride and satisfaction in the inspiration and guidance of the youth of Fort Wayne.

Proudly we view North Side High School, which for twenty-five years has stood for high ideals, sportsmanship, and the furthering of education. Her sturdy, strong pillars stand for the strength with which she protects those around her until they have learned from her way of life how to protect themselves.

The school is located on the banks of the Saint Joseph River, whose waters represent the truth of years flowing through our lives, washing away all undesirable things which might hinder our having a rich, full life.

Near the facade of the school stands the flagpole. Side by side they stand, symbolic of what has been called the American way of life. The building, with its sturdy brick walls, and the flag with its colors flying loftily in the sky, present a challenge to every American student . . . that we insure this, our free way of living.

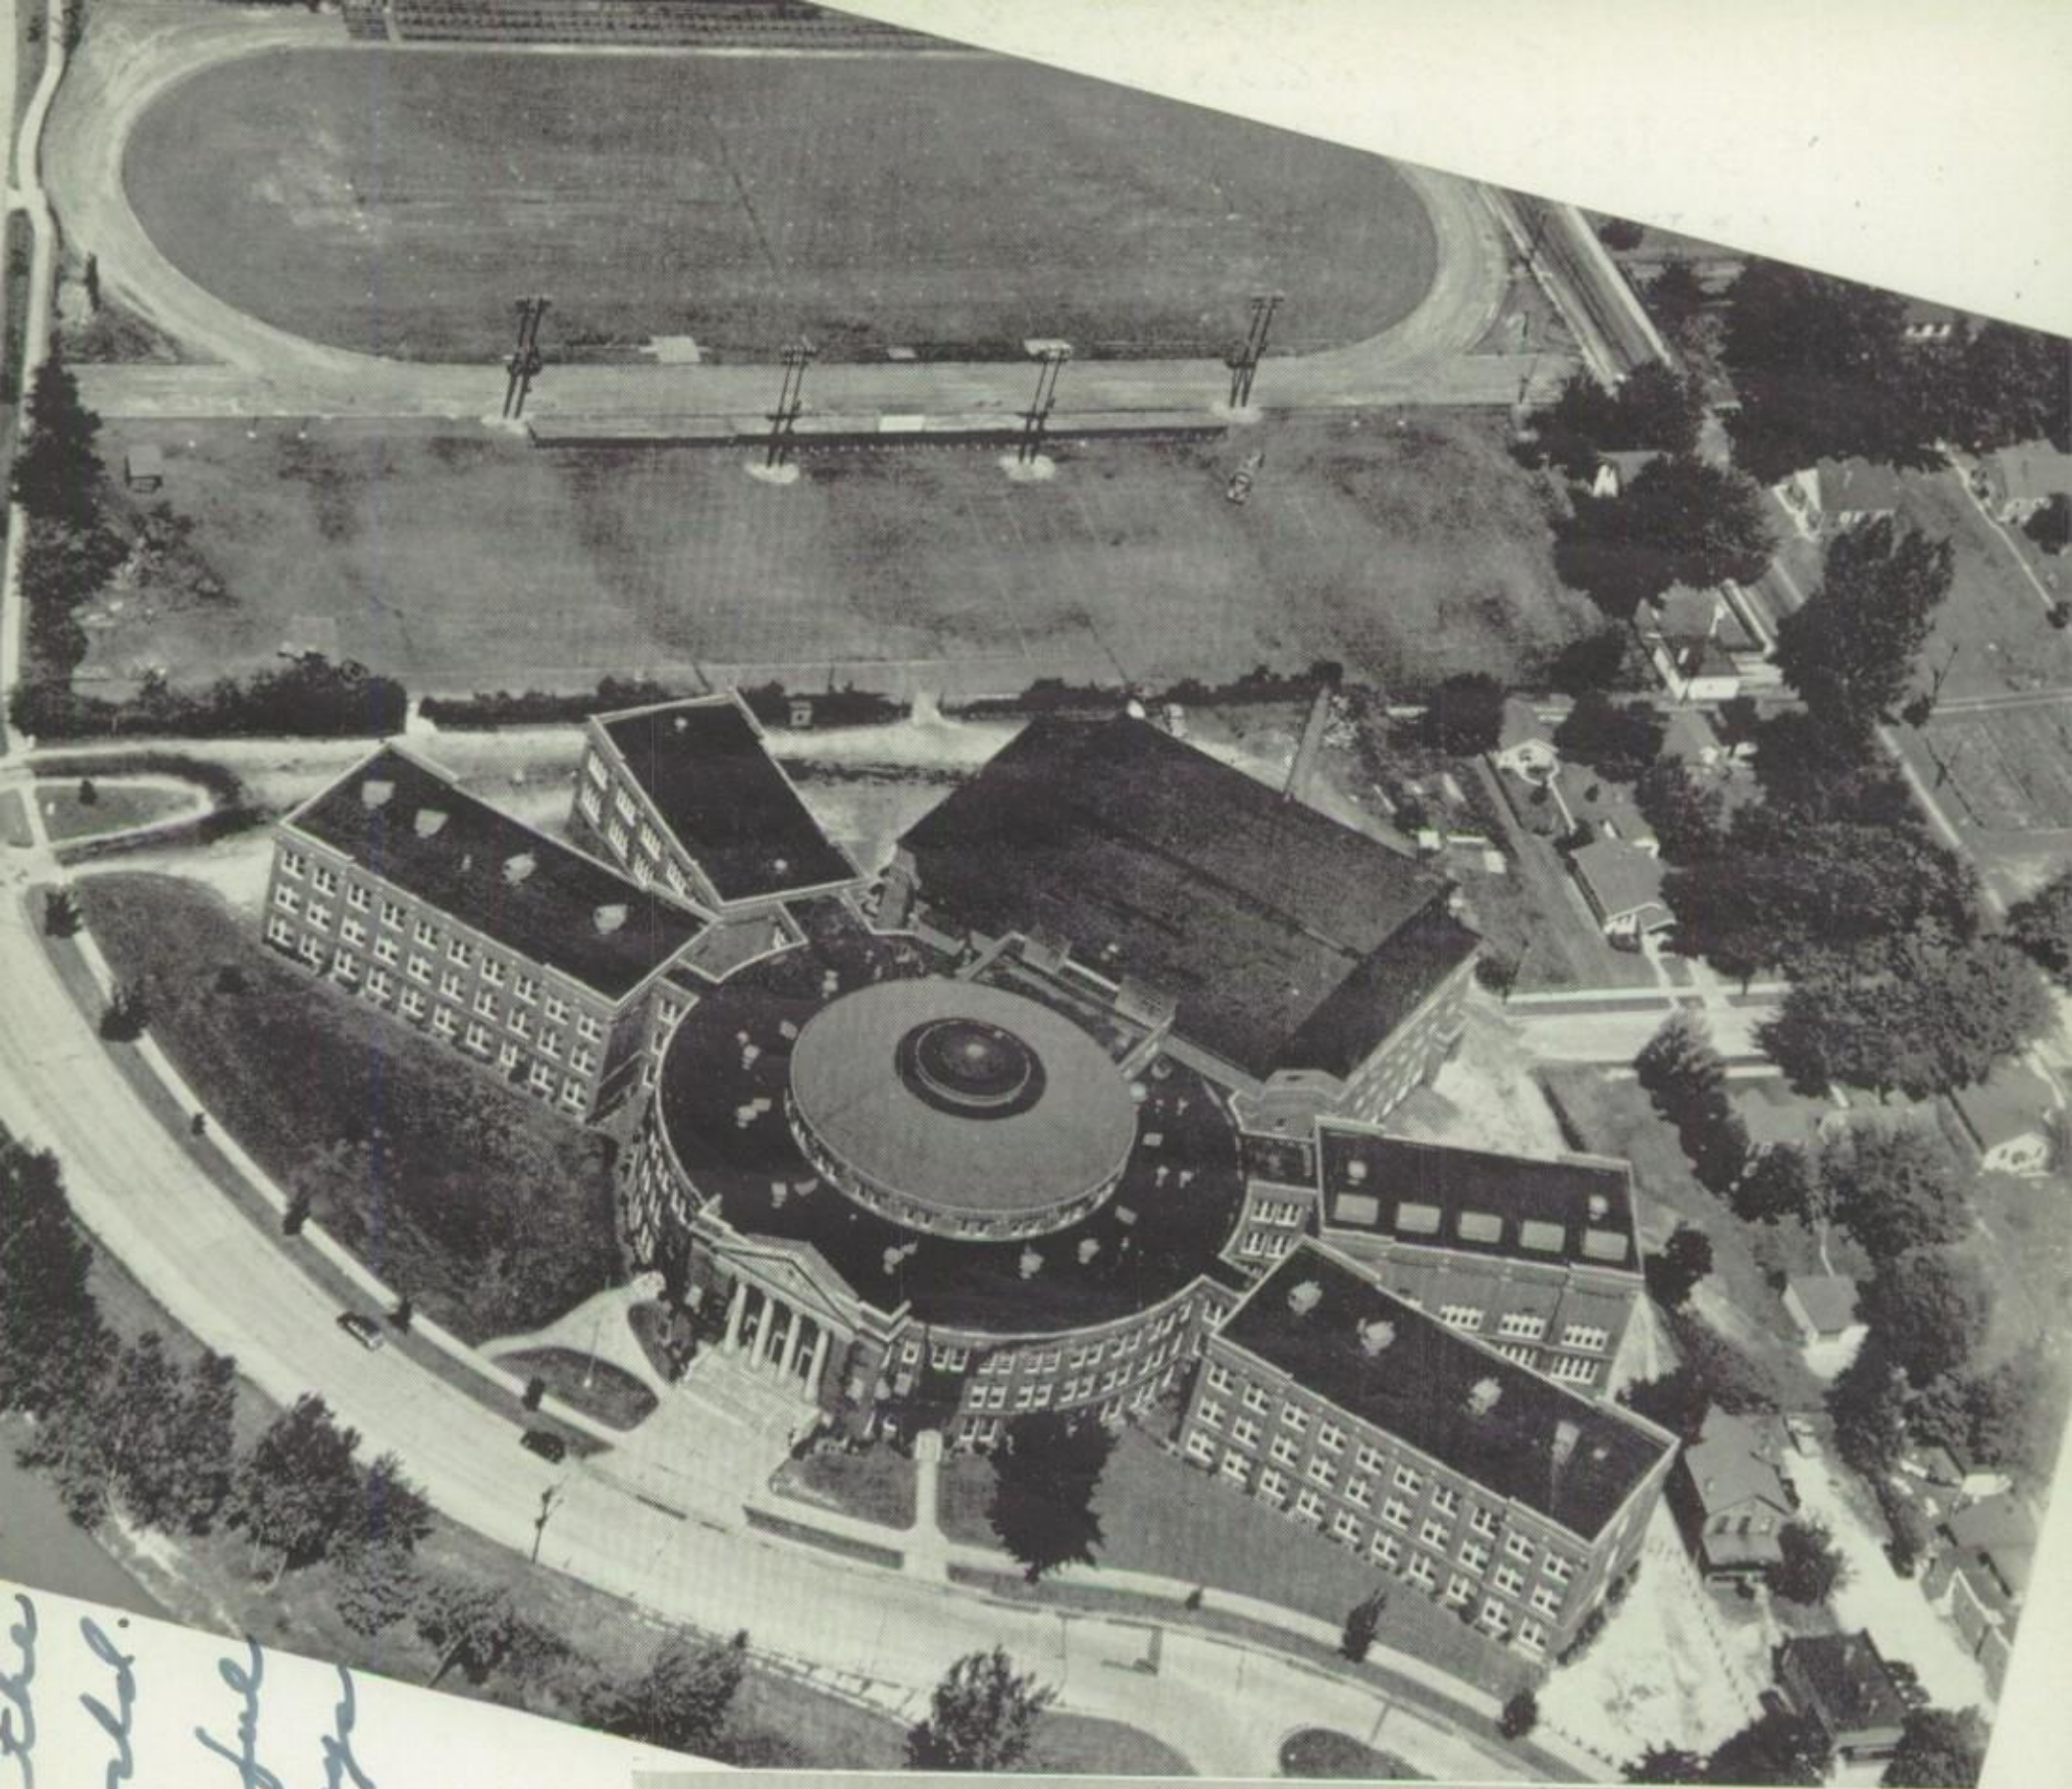

Our school presents a peaceful atmosphere to all on-lookers. The appearance is serene, one might even call it calm. Let us insure that the inner spirit is just as calm, so that we may work under the big dome in genial, loving, comradeship.

Principal

DIRECTS, HELPS NORTH STUDENTS

The students of North Side have the honor and privilege of going to school under the guidance and direction of our able principal, Milton H. Northrop. For twenty-five years, he has patiently guided the youth of North Side in the paths of good morals, clean living, and high ideals.

The character traits which he offers to us could only be furthered in the students because "Pop" Northrop shows us a good example of his ideas working for a better world in his own life. He has not only been a leader and example to all Northsiders for the past twenty-five years, but through his kindly guidance and understanding of student problems, he has become the living symbol of friendliness and Christian idealism that is so typical of North Side High School.

Superintendent

GUIDES, LEADS SCHOOL CITY

Superintendent Merle J. Abbett has continued to guide and improve the Fort Wayne school system for twenty years. His worthy reputation and fine achievements are examples upon which he bases the success of the school city. At all times, Dr. Abbett is ready to aid any student who needs consultation on certain problems. He succeeds in finding only the most qualified teachers with which to entrust the education and guidance of the students of Fort Wayne. Our highest esteem will always go to Dr. Abbett, for we have complete confidence in his judgment and ability in guiding the youth of our city.

FORMS VITAL LINK BETWEEN SCHOOL, PATRONS

The North Side Parent Teacher Association, composed of Redskin parents and teachers, is a strong and influential group in this community. This organization is a link between the school and its patrons, and encourages cooperation through regular meetings and various social functions. Fostering a congenial relationship between the parent and the teacher is the objective of the P. T. A.

This year the organization sponsored the after-game dance, a bake sale, and a rummage sale as their money-making projects for the year.

"Building Healthy Personalities" was the theme of the study group of the 1951-52 school year. The officers of the 1951-52 year of P. T. A. were Mrs. Fred Stellhorn, president; Mrs. S. T. Martin, first vice-president; Mr. Clifford Ott, second vice-president; Mrs. J. Howard Ackley, secretary; and Mrs. Cleston G. Erb, treasurer.

Dean

PROVIDES GUIDANCE, GENIAL FRIENDSHIP

Our cooperative dean of girls, Miss Victoria Gross, cheerfully provides another source of guidance as well as warm, genial friendship. Dean Gross supervises the vocational and personal records of present students as well as all graduates.

In any of the current problems or affairs, good sound knowledge may always be acquired in the Dean's office, which is open to any and all students.

WILLING CREW ASSISTS STUDENTS IN MANY WAYS

MISS HELEN BEAN

Much of the hard work of the janitors and the kitchen crew goes unheeded at North Side. These loyal friends silently make life easier for all of the students under the Big Dome. In many ways they do work that is unnecessary for them to do. If more of the students at North would take over for themselves and behave in a mature manner some of the useless wall scribbling and messy debris in the hall could be avoided and consequently their work could be made lighter. The meals in the cafeteria require long hours of careful thought and then long hours of careful preparation. If the Redskins are more careful about the appearance of the school and more cooperative and appreciative in the cafeteria they will be living up to the heritage North Side offers.

In the top picture, two of the caretakers, John Peterink and Fred Menzie cheerfully go about their work.

English

INTERESTING PHASES ENCOURAGE STUDY

One of the most important departments in the school is the English department. No other department lends as much assistance to the student's development and intellect. In the various grades of English, students cultivate the habits of good reading, grammar, and creative expression. The works of the masters as well as contemporary literature is studied throughout the four years of English basics.

In the adjacent pictures, North Side students are shown in the various activities of the English department. Dave Riley is orating in public speaking class. The middle picture shows two girls studying in the library. Our librarian, Miss Ethel Shroyer, makes much of our outside work more enjoyable by her kind assistance in the library. The bottom picture shows one of the most entertaining divisions of English 7, the presentation of one act plays, as well as selected cuttings from longer plays.

Languages

BROAD FIELD OFFERS CHOICE

"Language is not an abstract construction of the learned, or of the dictionarymakers, but is something arising out of the work, needs, ties, joys, affections, tastes, of long generations of humanity, and has its bases broad and low, close to the ground." In the above quotation, Walt Whitman expresses the supreme need of a language in everyone's life. North Side students are offered choice of three fundamental languages, Latin, French, and Spanish.

In the topmost picture, Jan Poling is showing Ann Nickerson and Laura Briggs something of interest on the map of France. The next picture illustrates the way in which the classicists enliven the study of Latin. In the largest picture at the bottom, Miss Marie Ehle lectures to her class on some interesting topic in the study of the Spanish language.

Art, Music

FINE ARTS FURNISH FUNDAMENTALS IMPORTANT TO WELL BALANCED LIFE

Art and Music, the two fundamental arts, take on an important aspect at North Side. The art classes deal in sculpture, crafts, still life, modern design, and many phases of the recent art field. By taking art, a student not only learns to discover his artistic ability, but he also learns the fundamentals of line and color which will benefit him in later life.

The Music Department of North Side is considered by many to be one of the finest in our state. Classes in choral and orchestral technique, and music theory are offered at the Big Dome. Among the many choirs, there is a beginning choir, a girls' choir, a training choir, and A Cappella. Students are promoted to each of these choirs as they show more advanced musical ability.

PROSPECTIVE SCIENTISTS PRACTICE ART OF EXPERIMENTING, OBSERVING

The study of Science helps a student to analyze and to experiment in life. He will not only complete his chemistry or physics experiments, but he will also acquire an inquisitive mind and experimental knowledge that will enable him to think things out for himself. Science is simply the everyday use of common sense. At North Side, classes offered in the field of science are chemistry, physics, botany, biology, and physical geography.

Practical Arts

REDSKINS RECEIVE MANUAL INSTRUCTION

Probably two of the most practical classes offered at North Side are home economics and manual training. Instructions in metal, wood, and mechanical drawing are offered to any student preparing for a manual profession. All phases of cooking and sewing are offered to any girl interested in the domestic field. In the adjacent pictures, North Side students are seen in the various activities in this department.

The upper lefthand picture shows Dick Barfel proudly surveying his corner cupboard as an onlooker praises the exacting work. The next picture finds us in the home economics department. Dixie Ray and a few other girls are looking in on some delicacy as Miss Oleeta French stands by giving helpful advice. The lower picture shows a welding class. Mr. Ruthford Smuts uses various means of getting work for his welding students. They do practice work on old materials and then similiar work on articles that need attention.

Business

LARGE STAFF PROVIDE WIDE SUBJECT CHOICE

Many students at North Side have benefited by having entered the business department of the school. Going out into the business world, these people are better prepared for having the fundamentals of business theory, typing, shorthand, and clerical practice.

In the accompanying pictures, some of the various business classes are seen in full session. The topmost picture shows Mrs. Grace Bridges teaching a shorthand class. The middle picture allows us to view a typing class in full swing. And the bottom picture again shows Mrs. Bridges ably demonstrating technique in shorthand. Other teachers in this department are Mr. Leslie Reeves, Mr. John Mertes, Mr. William R. Simon, Mrs. Maryann Chapman, and Miss Oral Furst.

DRIVER'S TRAINING, SWIMMING, GYM, BALANCE ACTIVITIES OF NORTHSIDERS

School life at North Side would not be complete without the part time classes such as driver's training, swimming, gym, and vocations. These activities help in making the life of a Redskin more well-balanced. The genuine enjoyment gained from the physical fitness classes is well worth the effort put forth because one not only gains in the health standard but the whole scope is widened. Driver's training is one of the most important classes in the whole school curriculum. Mr. Robert Traster puts for the good standards of driving as well as the abilities of patience, understanding, and quick, precise thinking. In all of these extra-curricular activities the life of a Redskin is broadened in many helpful ways.

Mrs. Lillian Scott is shown with a few of her helpers taking the day's attendance. In the driver's training class, two beginners are courteously shown the results of good driving.

Student Council

GROUP FORMS STUDENT POLICIES

The Student Council brings the student body into a closer relationship with the faculty. It is a democratic body based soundly on democratic ideals; in addition to being the link between the faculty and the students, it promotes friendly student relationship.

In choosing officers, the Student Council members must be most careful to select those who will co-operate and work to the best of their ability for the betterment of North Side. This year, the council chose Richard Chambers, president; Bill Griswold, vice-president; Lois Roush, secretary; and Shirley Clark, treasurer. Richard Noble was selected as sergeant-at-arms and Richard Prairie as parliamentarian. Dean Victoria Gross and Principal Milton H. Northrop act as advisers for the group.

Promoting good welfare and stressing courtesy are two of the council's chief aims. The activities which help to emphasize these aims are Back-to-School Night, Get Acquainted Day, Junior High Day, and Courtesy Week. In sponsoring these annual events, students in the council provide a fine example for the other members of the entire student body.

To my dearest darling Diane

Well the time finally came when I could signal the legends. Boy this year has really gone fast. But it's been so much fun. Remember how scared I was when I first started. Boy not too funny. Just think just one more year for you and you will be graduating. I've got three more years of football and basket ball to look forward to. That is worth looking forward to, but the school work. Well that's a different thing entirely. Remember last summer when Paul and I went double with you and Dave. I wish it were that way this year. That one night when he didn't have any lights remember, not too funny. Those were the good old days. This summer I'm going to summer school, but we'll get our tans in the afternoon. Na? Remember when I first met you. I was in the sixth grade and you were in the eighth. How times have changed. No more singing out in front of Korens house. Well I'm running out of space. So I'll say goodbye for now.

Remember when Dave went to Florida, and you stayed all night with me, that was a fit. It was raining and lightning, and my ink went wild. That didn't scare me too much. Also my little bed, it just about fit into it. I think we got some sleep I guess. Oh well it was fun. We sure have had fun all of these years. I hope it will always be this way. Just stay as nice as you are and you'll be tops. Well this time stop.

Jim Shaw and Linda Einhorn were voted the best dancers and Virginia Derickson and Ron Allan, prettiest girl and handsomest boy. The best public speaker honors went to Sam Jackson and Bev Householder and Richard Prairie and Gloria Evans were voted most studious. Courtesy honors went to Steve Martin and Patsy Overman; Steve was also voted the most notorious woman-hater. Shirlee Clark and Bill Fair were voted the boy and girl with the best sense of humor and Shirley Summers was voted the most notorious man-hater. The boy and girl with the prettiest hair were Ronnie Allan and Ruthie Scott by popular demand. Last but not least, the seniors of the class of 1952 voted Bob Winefer and Ann McDowell the cutest couple.

The graduating class of 1952 can look back on the four years of high school memories with mingled regret and joy. This joy will surely be remembered by all in the wonderful happenings of four, rich, full years.

As freshmen, we entered the school activities with a traditional freshman party, headed by president, Bill Conway. Mrs. Alice Nusbaum and Mr. Clair Motz advised us that year.

In the sophomore year, Mr. J. Robert Sinks and Miss Frances Plummans helped to lead our class. The sophomore class president, Froncie Gutman, in his inaugural speech asked for the co-operation of all the students to aid him in leading our class in completing its second year. That year our sophomore party was "Winter Wonderland".

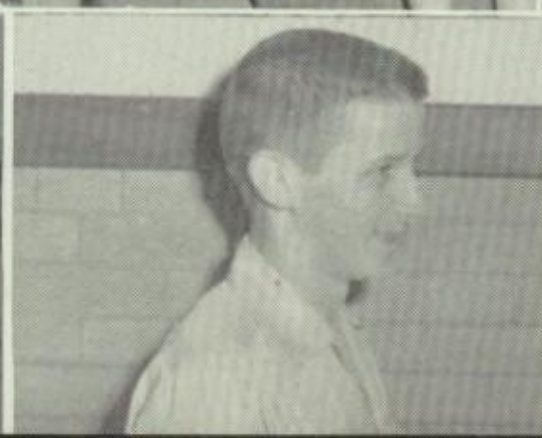

When we became juniors we really felt big as we were now upperclassmen. To make the junior prom a hit we decided to raise money by having a preparatory dance, "The Scarecrow Scramble". Our junior prom, "An Evening In Paris", really sent us on our way to becoming big time. Dave Platt headed the class and we were ably advised by Mrs. Grace Bridges and Mr. Robert Sinks.

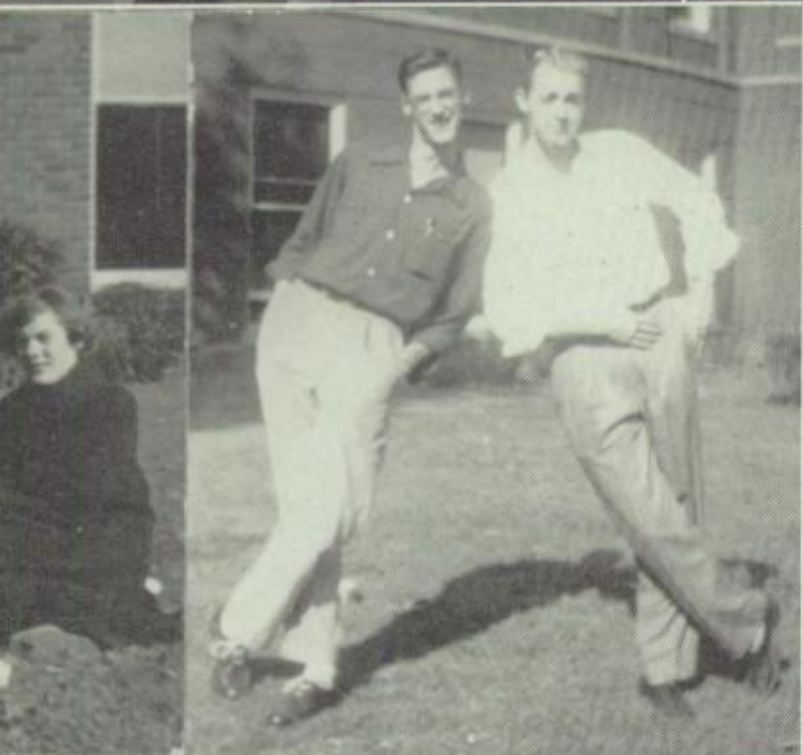

Reaching our senior year, we entered immediately into the swing of things with the election of officers. This last and final year we elected Sam Jackson prexy of the senior class. Since we were the twenty-fifth graduating class of North Side we based our whole year around this theme. Our Senior banquet, "Silver Anniversary", added another delightful memory to our album already now fully heaped. Bill Conway and Steve Martin entertained all with their hilarious class prophecy, "Cross My Palms With Silver".

Our senior play, "Best Foot Forward", was a big success: it is a sure thing that the class of 1952 will long remember Winsocki Prep School and all of its trimmings.

Last, but not least, came our senior commencement dance, "Count Every Star". Finally graduation day was near at hand, along with the class will and all the thrilling affairs of Senior Day. When we reached our goal, and received our diplomas, we clutched them with mingled feelings, eagerly awaiting the future, but sorrowfully leaving the past, however, we shall face the future confidently, secure in our confidence in a superb background.

Many fond memories are in store for the seniors of the class of '52. As they look back on their high school years they will remember the times when the going was rough and the times when they fully enjoyed themselves. But fortunately, all memories are good ones and the youthful ones are the very best. In these senior snaps, numerous examples of this statement is reflected in the faces of the senior students of the class of 1952.

Third Year Students Accept Senior Challenges

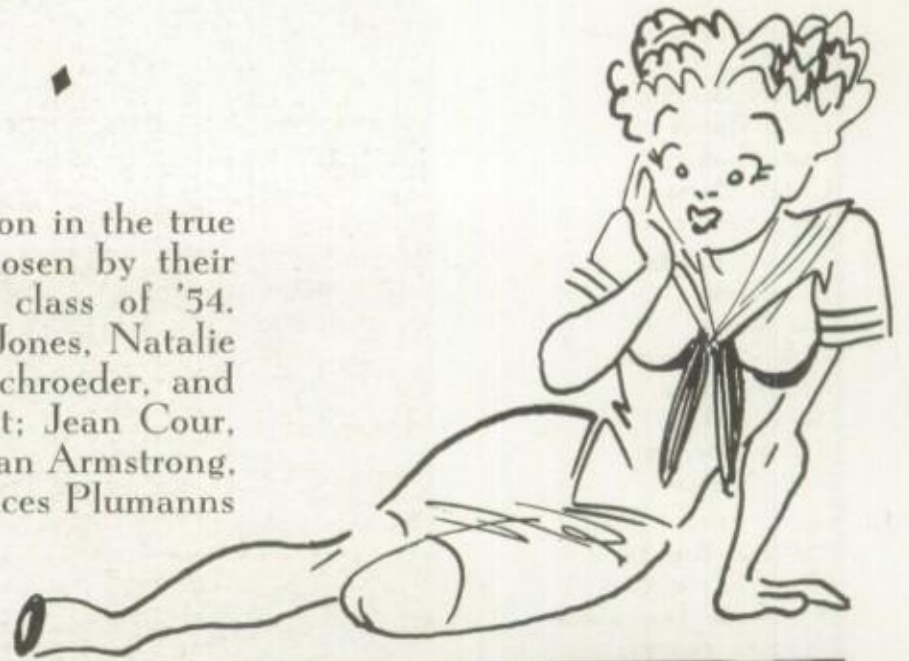

Those three year students called "juniors" have gone far to accept the tributes and challenges handed to them by the graduating seniors. In their three years of preparation, they have been offered the qualities that will make them worthy not only as seniors, but as human beings ready to face the world with something of themselves to offer. These qualities radiate from all of the students around North Side, but more so in the juniors and seniors because they are realizing more and more the values of life.

Becoming a junior is wonderful, but leaving that station behind is more of a thrill and challenge when you have such wonderful standards to uphold as those of a true Redskin. The senior class of 1952 can proudly hand over their position to the senior class of 1953, knowing that the work will be bettered and carried on to the best of their ability.

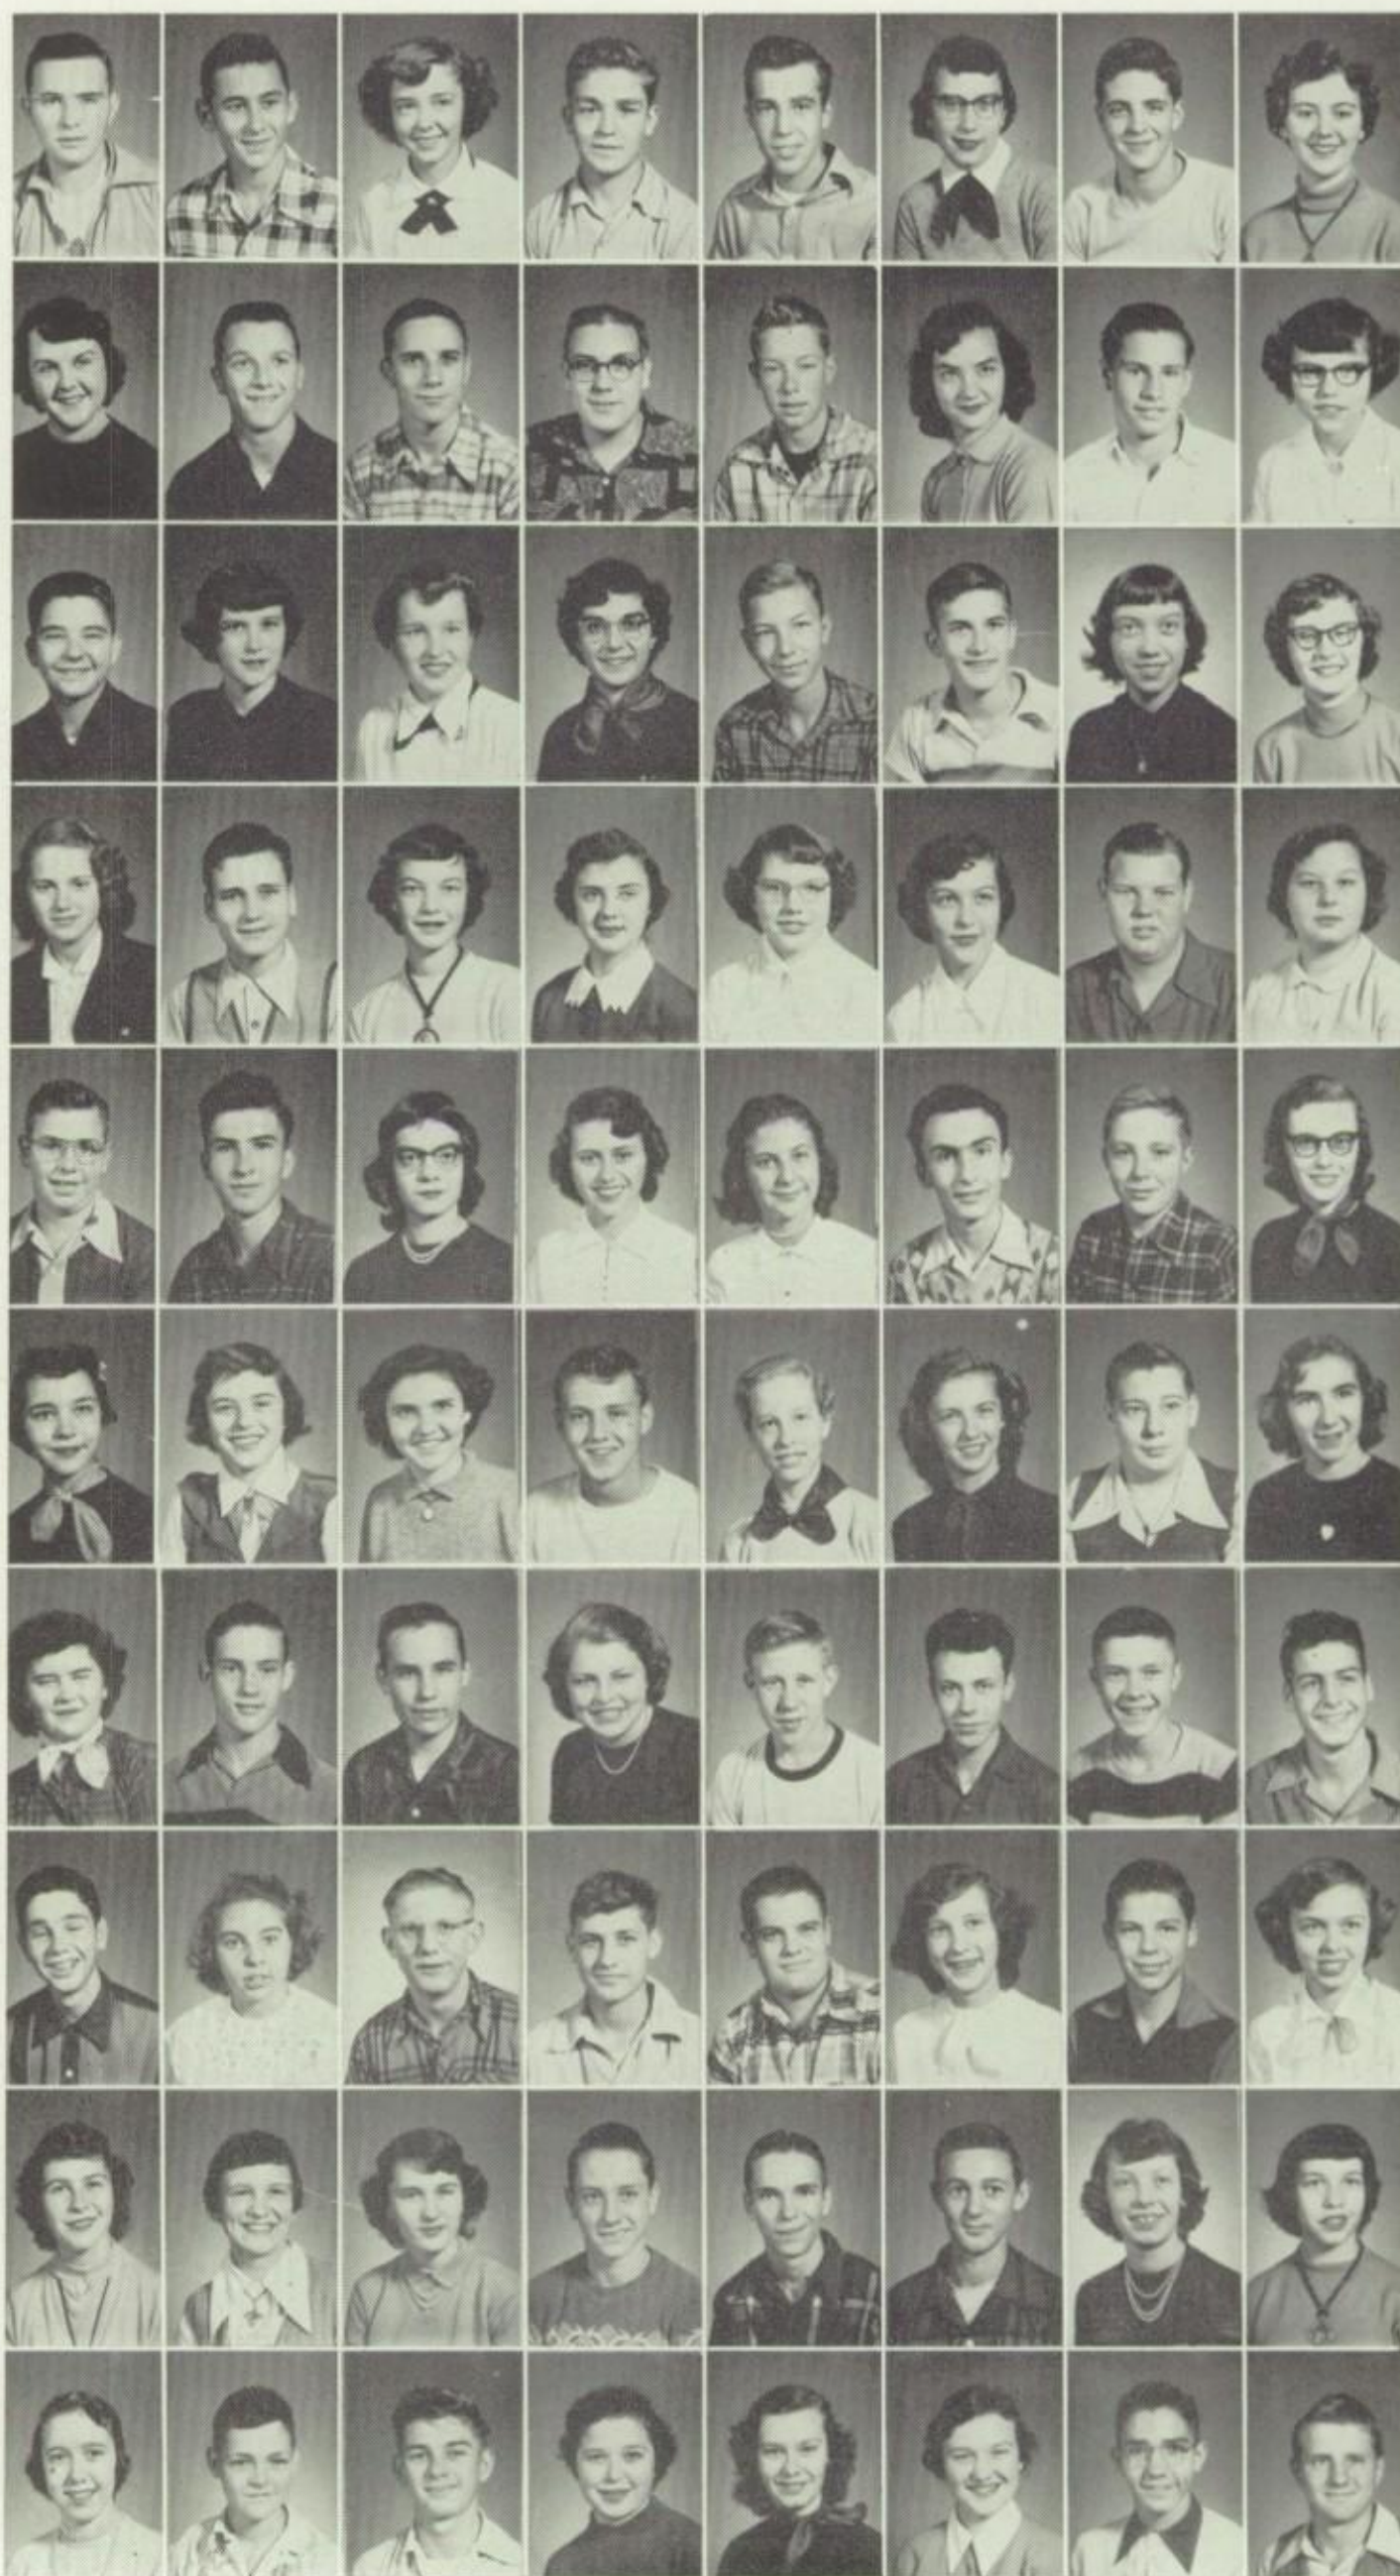

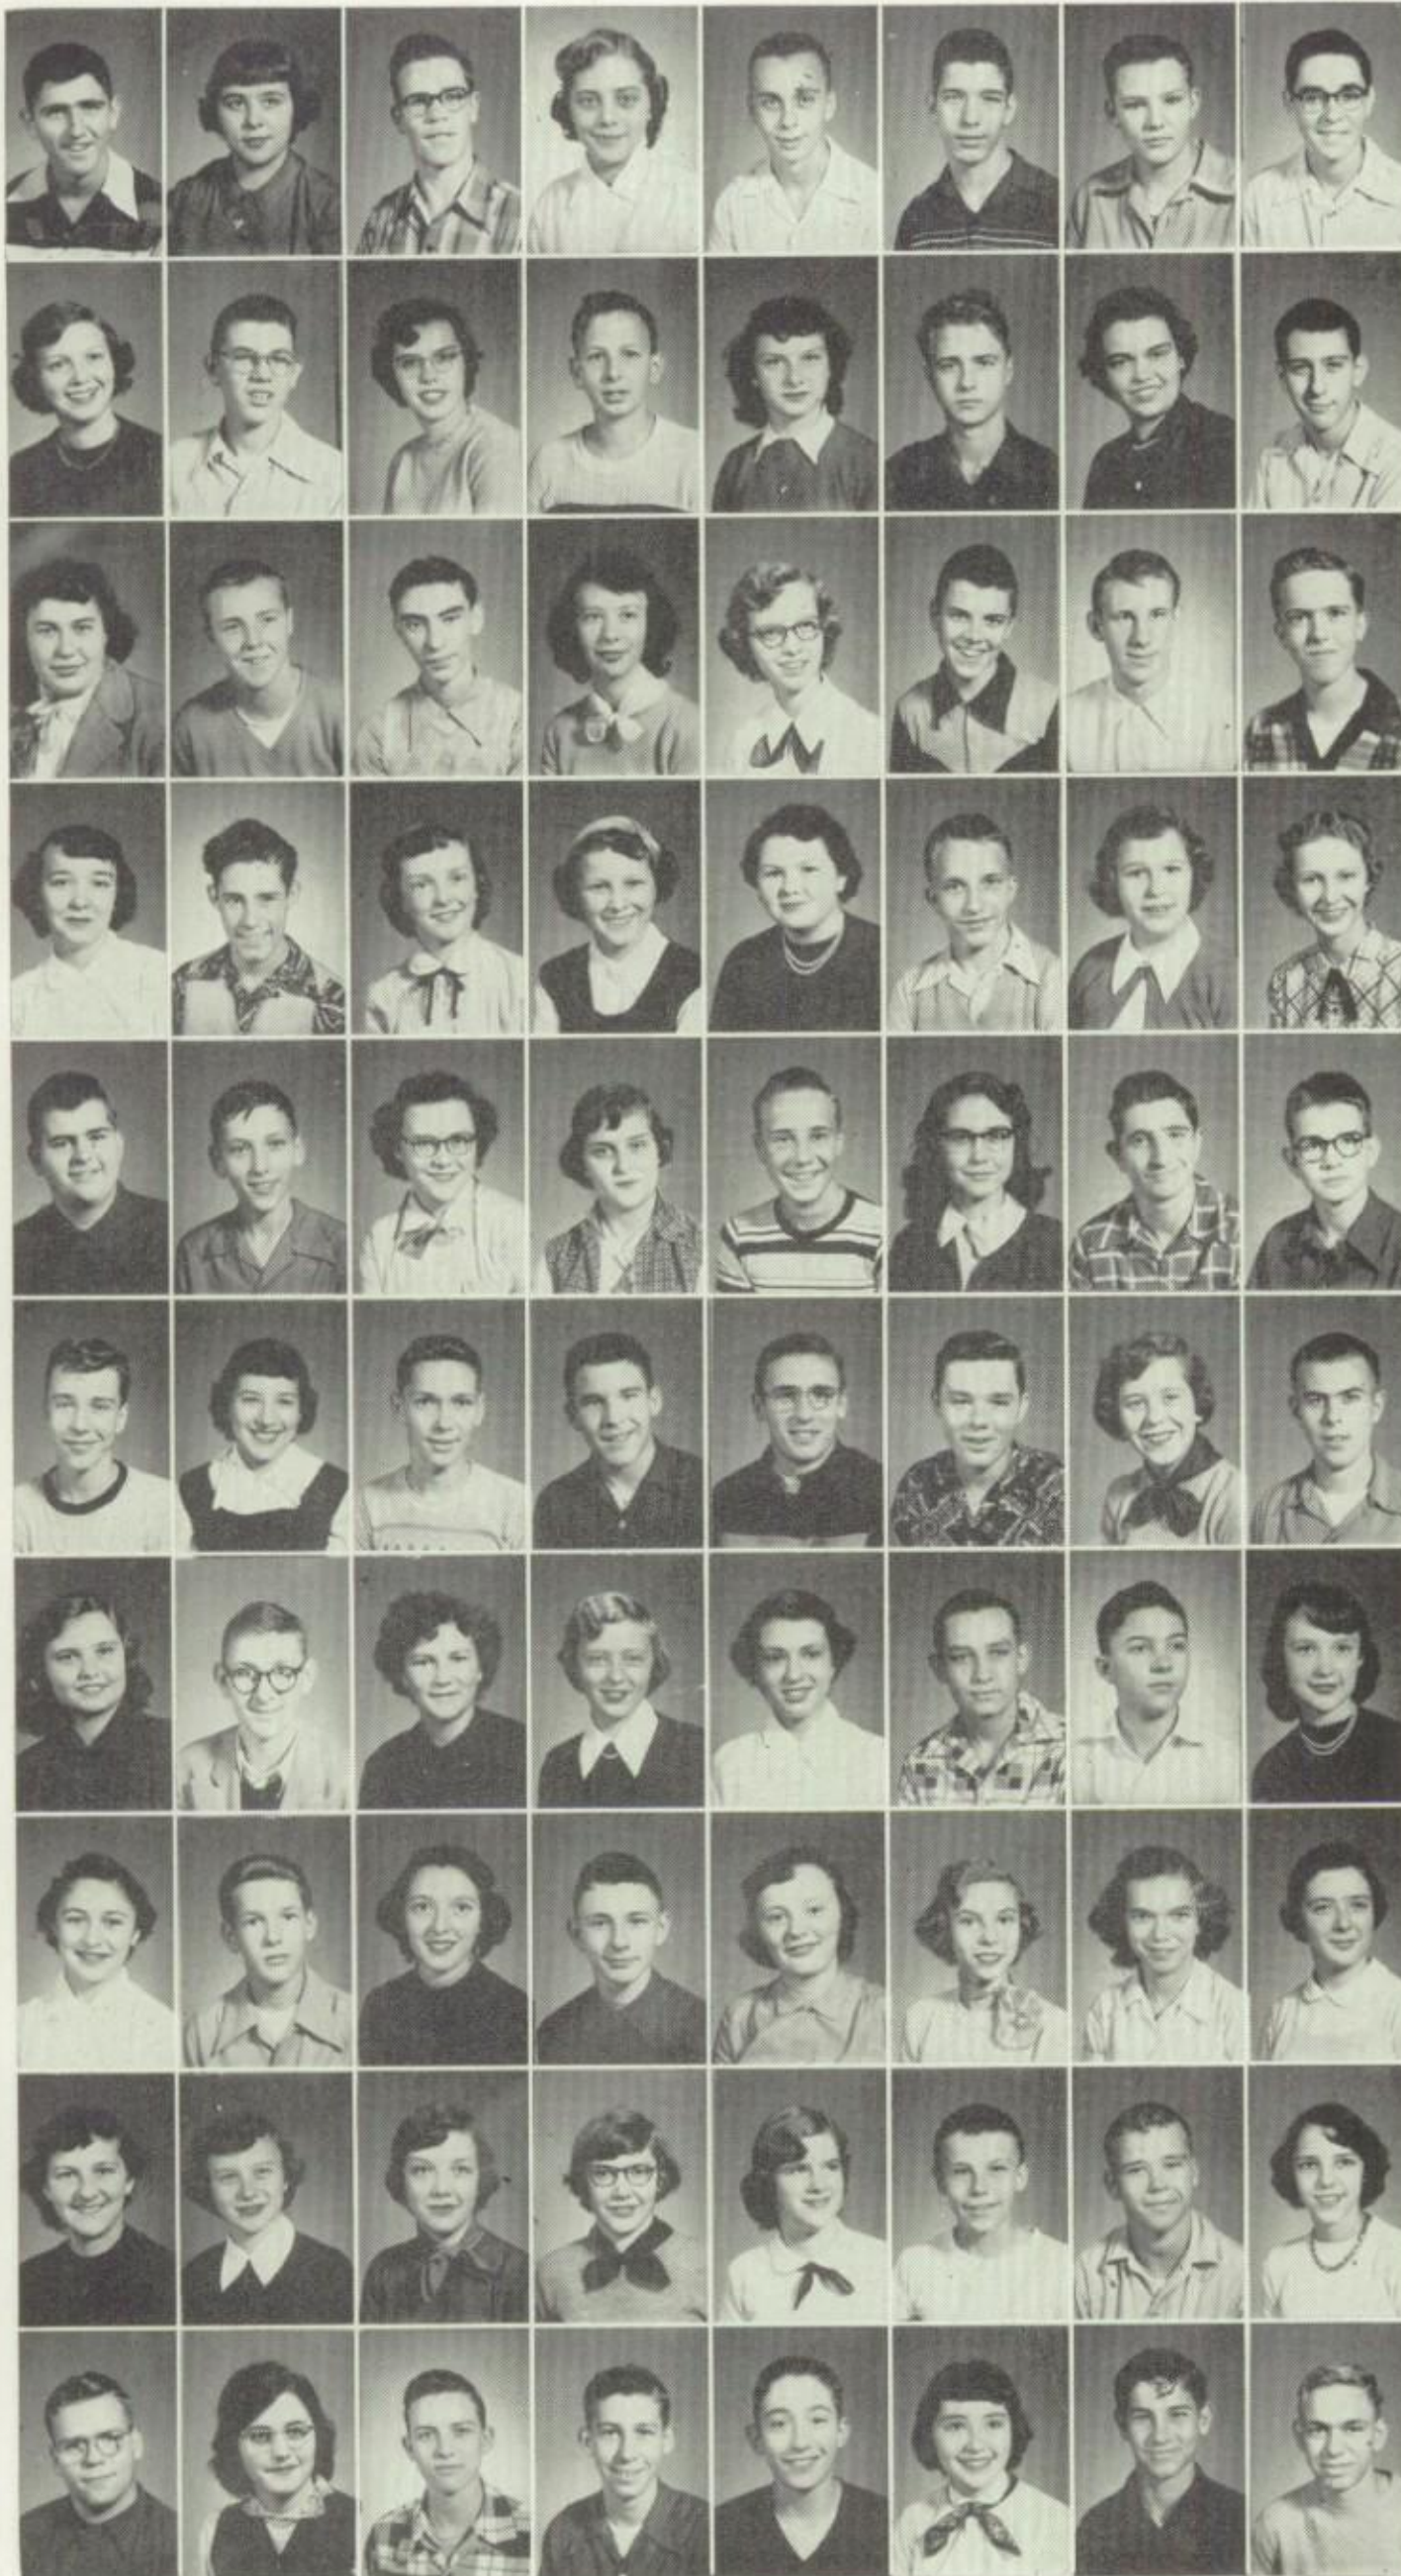

Sophomores

Completing their second year, the sophomores are going on in the true fashion to make their class one of the all time greats. Chosen by their classmates are the ten most outstanding members of the class of '54. They are Barrie Delp, Jean Cour, Norm Armstrong, Leon Jones, Natalie Martin, Jim McGarry, Nancy Poling, Kay Zent, Sandra Schroeder, and Jack Bradshaw. The class officers are Barrie Delp, president; Jean Cour, vice-president; Natalie Martin, secretary-treasurer; and Norman Armstrong, social chairman. Advising the sophomore class are Miss Frances Plumanns and Mr. Robert Sinks.

Eager Sophomores

SECOND YEAR POINTS TO FUTURE

With two wonderful years behind them, the sophomores are eagerly awaiting two more wonderful years in the future. The school activities of which they have taken more part since they were freshmen are now only beautiful memories but the activities to come in the junior and senior years can only complete the volume that has four wonderful preparatory chapters; freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior. This volume with its many heartaches and joys is only complete if you have given as much to your school and schoolmates as possible.

Our sophomores have two years to go; if they have not all done as much with them as possible they still have a chance of making the remaining two years the best years of their life.

Starting already in the traditions of loyal Redskins, these outstanding freshmen pause for a minute to have their pictures taken for the Legend. The ten most outstanding members of the freshmen class were Jim Ford, Judy Bash, Bob Sanders, Mona Harris, Bob Platt, Bill Townsend, Lolly Luhman, Joan White, Rita Koch, and Norma Born.

The class of '55 chose as their officers Jim Ford, president; Bob Platt, vice-president; Bob Sanders, secretary-treasurer; and Judy Bash, social chairman.

The class advisers are Miss Mildred Huffman and Mr. Everett Pennington.

Freshman Newcomers

FROSH CONTINUE EXCELLENT START

The greenies just entering the portals of North have taken the first step in becoming loyal Redskins. Having completed their first year, they are going ahead with more of the good work which has made their class one of the many to be remembered.

Now that the fever of the first days is over, the frosh can settle back to enjoy three more wonderful years at North Side. The freshman party is over, but the class of 1955 can look forward to the sophomore party, the junior prom, and finally the senior commencement dance. These activities are only a few of the many exciting events which color the life of a Northsider before he graduates, and after having been fully prepared for the future years in the outside world.

After an active start, the class of 1955 has shown us the heritage at North will not let it fail, and will go on to create something of beauty, strength, and truth out of the future years.

The main objective of the club is to help the members find what he or she would like to teach.

Majorettes

NORTH TWIRLERS ADD SPARKLE, COLOR

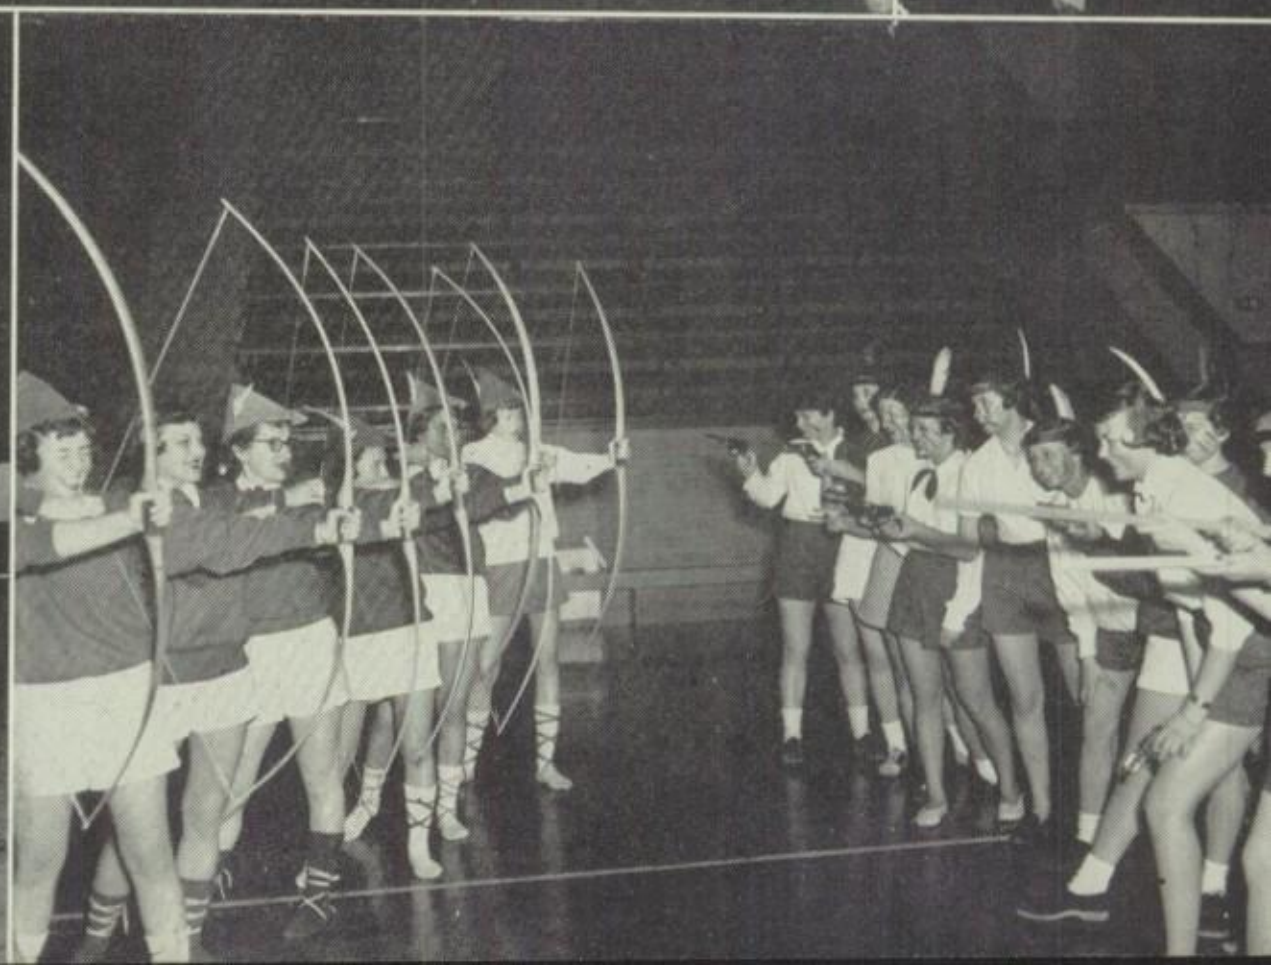

The North Side majorettes can always be depended upon to add sparkle and color to the half-time of the football and basketball games. This year the twirlers put on many fine shows for the ardent Red fans. Some of the novelty arrangements that will be remembered are the South American skit, and the interpretation of Sadie Hawkin's Day. All Redskins will naturally remember the traditional war dance around the campfire. Hard work was required to master each one of these performances. These artists of the baton also present the American flag at the beginning of each game.

Every fifth period, the seventeen twirlers, under the leadership of Linda Einhorn, practice routines and formations which will add color and background to the many school activities. Mr. Clyde Copeland meets with the girls to combine their special numbers with the music of the band. North Side majorettes have also taken part in many parades in the past year.

Cheer Leaders

"Two-fifty" means pep session time and all the students rush to get front row seats. During the past season, the pep sessions have been a big help in developing school spirit. Varsity cheering honors for the past season have been shared by co-captains, Lois Roush and Ruby Baker. Janet Fuhrman and Sandra Schroeder ably assisted the co-captains. The cheerleaders' adviser is Mr. Arthur J. Rhoads.

and Pep Sessions

Many different pep session programs were planned by the various classes and organizations. The grid-women put on a fine example of their idea of a football game. Basketball brought the sophomores "looking into the future", the juniors' "Santa Claus", and the Phy-Chem "bang-up" affair. The senior class of "52" will always be remembered for its fine interpretation of the "Big Show" with "Tallulah" Fair and her many guests. Another important factor in the promotion of school spirit was the formation of the cheering block by the students.

STUDENT PUBLICATION REQUIRES INTEREST, DILIGENCE, PERSEVERANCE

Publishing a Northerner is a gruelling task with which no one but the most ardent journalists could contend. This year our new adviser, Mr. James Purkhiser, has brought with him many new ideas about publications along with many activities which the staff hopes will become traditional. One of these social activities which was a joy for all who attended was the Northerner banquet held at Howard Johnson's. Awards were made to the staff members who had earned sufficient points for publication pins and the 1952 staff appointments were made. A spring picnic was held at Franke Park to climax the year's activities.

The second semester staff consisted of Patsy Overman, publisher; Sue Shirey, assistant publisher; Cynthia Cantelon, managing editor; Gale Weismer, feature editor; Marilyn Hall, assistant feature editor; Nancy Poling, news editor; Barbara Lohman, classroom news editor; Norman Hessert, boys' sport editor; Sue Reasoner, business manager; Loretta Heller, circulation manager; Jean Cour, advertising manager; Judy Hatch, auditor; Carol Eicher, exchange editor; and Richard Prairie, student adviser.

Richard Prairie proved his ability as student adviser when Mr. Purkhiser went to New York to the Columbia Press Association Convention in March. Richard stepped in and doubled as teacher as well as taking over and putting out a paper for that week.

The Northerner again won top honors this year in national competition in the Columbia Press Association by rating in the medalist division.

YEARBOOK STAFF REQUIRES ABILITIES OF ARTISTS, WRITERS, BUSINESS MANAGERS

Publishing a yearbook is one of the most important tasks that a high school student undertakes. A yearbook project takes long hours of hard work. Planning such a project requires the abilities of artists, writers, and good business managers. A yearbook is published to record and preserve the happenings of the school year. These activities must be recorded to the best of the staff's ability; they are the only record of that school year.

Lois Roush, circulation manager, started the year off by introducing the 1951-52 Legend circulation campaign. The next project, the Legend dance, was headed by Betty Miller, business manager. Sadie Hawkin's Day was chosen as the theme and the dance was named "Dog-Patch Dither."

The Legend staff was advised this year by a new adviser, Mr. James Purkhiser. The staff consisted of Gray Morrow and Ronda Jones, co-editors; copy editor, Betty Miller; business manager, Lois Roush; circulation manager, Sharlene Sordelet; assistant business manager, Margie Spade; Dorothy Hile and Nancy Murphy, senior editors; Pauline Micu and Max Stackhouse, junior editors. The staff photographers were Robert Schwartz, James Olson, and Richard Loudermilk.

faculty and students various programs of music that would delight any music lover's ears.

This year the orchestra played for the senior play, the Spring and Winter concerts, and the commencement exercises. The orchestra also added their talent to the annual Lenten cantata given by the music department, which this year consisted of the presentation of "The Holy City" by A. R. Gaul.

CHOIR REPRESENTS FONDEST DREAM OF NORTH SIDE ADVANCED VOCALISTS

Mr. Raymond Beights
Director of Vocal Music

To become a member of the A Cappella Choir, is one of the most cherished dreams in the mind of a North Side vocalist. The long hours of practice and the many sacrifices are rewards to the members of this organization.

The A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Mr. Raymond Beights, is one of the best examples offered to Fort Wayne of North Side talent. For example, this year the choir has presented concerts for the Wayne Pump, the Rotary Club, the Chamber of Commerce, and various church groups.

Students receive training in preparation for membership in the A Cappella Choir by enrolling in the chorus classes of Girls' Choir and Training Choir.

Band

MUSICIANS MEET HEAVY SCHEDULE

Providing music for the football games, basketball games, and concerts requires a heavy schedule, as all band members well know. Mr. Clyde Copeland, the band director, works diligently with each and every student musician. All of our pep sessions were enlivened greatly by the peppy music offered by the North Side Band.

The band proves its skill by playing in the annual school concerts of the year. The progressive North Side Band also played in several other outside concerts such as out-of-town grade school concerts.

North Side boys are offered many types of different sports events over the course of a school year. If they do not take part in active varsity sports they may become members of an intramural team or simply take part in the many active gymnasium classes offered. These sports tend to make healthier boys, better associates, and good sportsmen of the North Side boys.

CITY CHAMPS RECEIVE RECOGNITION UNDER ABLE DIRECTION OF NULF

The 1951 football season proved to be a glorious one for the North Side Nullmen. They bettered their season to six wins and three losses over last year's record of four wins and three losses. Taking the city championship was another well-deserved honor heaped upon the football warriors.

Members of the team to receive recognition are: Bob Derrow, honorary team captain, All-City first squad, All-State second squad; Ron Seibert, All-City first squad, All-

VARSITY MOTZMEN COP ALL-CITY TITLE AS WELL AS PRESS, STATE HONORS

The varsity Motzmen turned in a 1951-1952 basketball season that really makes us all proud to be called Redskins. The team under the coaching of Clair Motz turned in a record of twenty wins, four losses. This marks the fourth straight year that Coach Motz posted over .700 plus record, having completed .854 this season.

The team collected many honors. The Associated Press ranked the Motzmen fifth in the state and North placed more men on Fort Wayne All-City squad than any other city school. The members elected were Warren Fisher, Bob Winefer, Froncie Gutman, and Ron Allan. Warren Fisher was also the high scorer for the sectionals. Bob Winefer and Warren Fisher were elected honorary co-captains of the basketball squad.

SECONDS TAKE NINE, LOSE SEVEN

The North Side reserve basketball team came through this season with flying colors having nine wins and seven losses. Under the able coaching of Mr. Robert Traster, the team showed examples of fine basketball and sportsmanship. Some of the games won by Traster's men were Michigan City, 49-14; Auburn, 43-28; South Side, 27-26; and Central Catholic 24-23.

Freshman Team

FROSH COMPLETE BEST CAMPAIGN

In future years, North Side can look forward to having a fine basketball team if the freshman team continues the record they have made for themselves in the 1951-52 season. Coach Robert Edwards can justly be proud of his boys who won thirteen games and lost none. Thirteen proved to be lucky for them as they also won the Northern Indiana Conference freshman title.

The high scorer was Henry Chapman with an average of 14.6 points per game. Charlie Lyons placed second with 8.2 points per game.

RACQUETEERS MAKE GOOD SHOWING

Under the direction of the new tennis coach, Mr. Arthur Rhoades, the racqueteers won three meets and lost five. The Redskins defeated South Bend Adams, South Bend Central, and LaPorte teams.

Although the netters lost five games, they made a fine showing having only one returning letterman, Max Stackhouse. Carl Rinne, Karlton Holle, Harry Brown, Harvey Himelstein, Bob Winefer, and Steve Martin complete the varsity squad. The captain of the 1952 team was Max Stackhouse.

Intramural

FULL ATHLETIC PROGRAM OFFERED TO ALL REDSKINS

The intramural noon league tournament again this school year provided interesting play for North Side students. The basketball tournament was under the direction of Coaches Don Kemp, Rolla Chambers, and Clair Motz. The games were played throughout the week and took place during the noon period.

The league was divided into two divisions, the lightweight and heavyweight. Several of the varsity players officiated at these noon games, others coached the teams. Larry Harter was voted the most valuable player of this league.

The intramural track meet was held in the spring between all non-varsity participants. Mr. Hyrle Ivy supervises intramural swimming contests each year for all boys' swimming classes.

Track

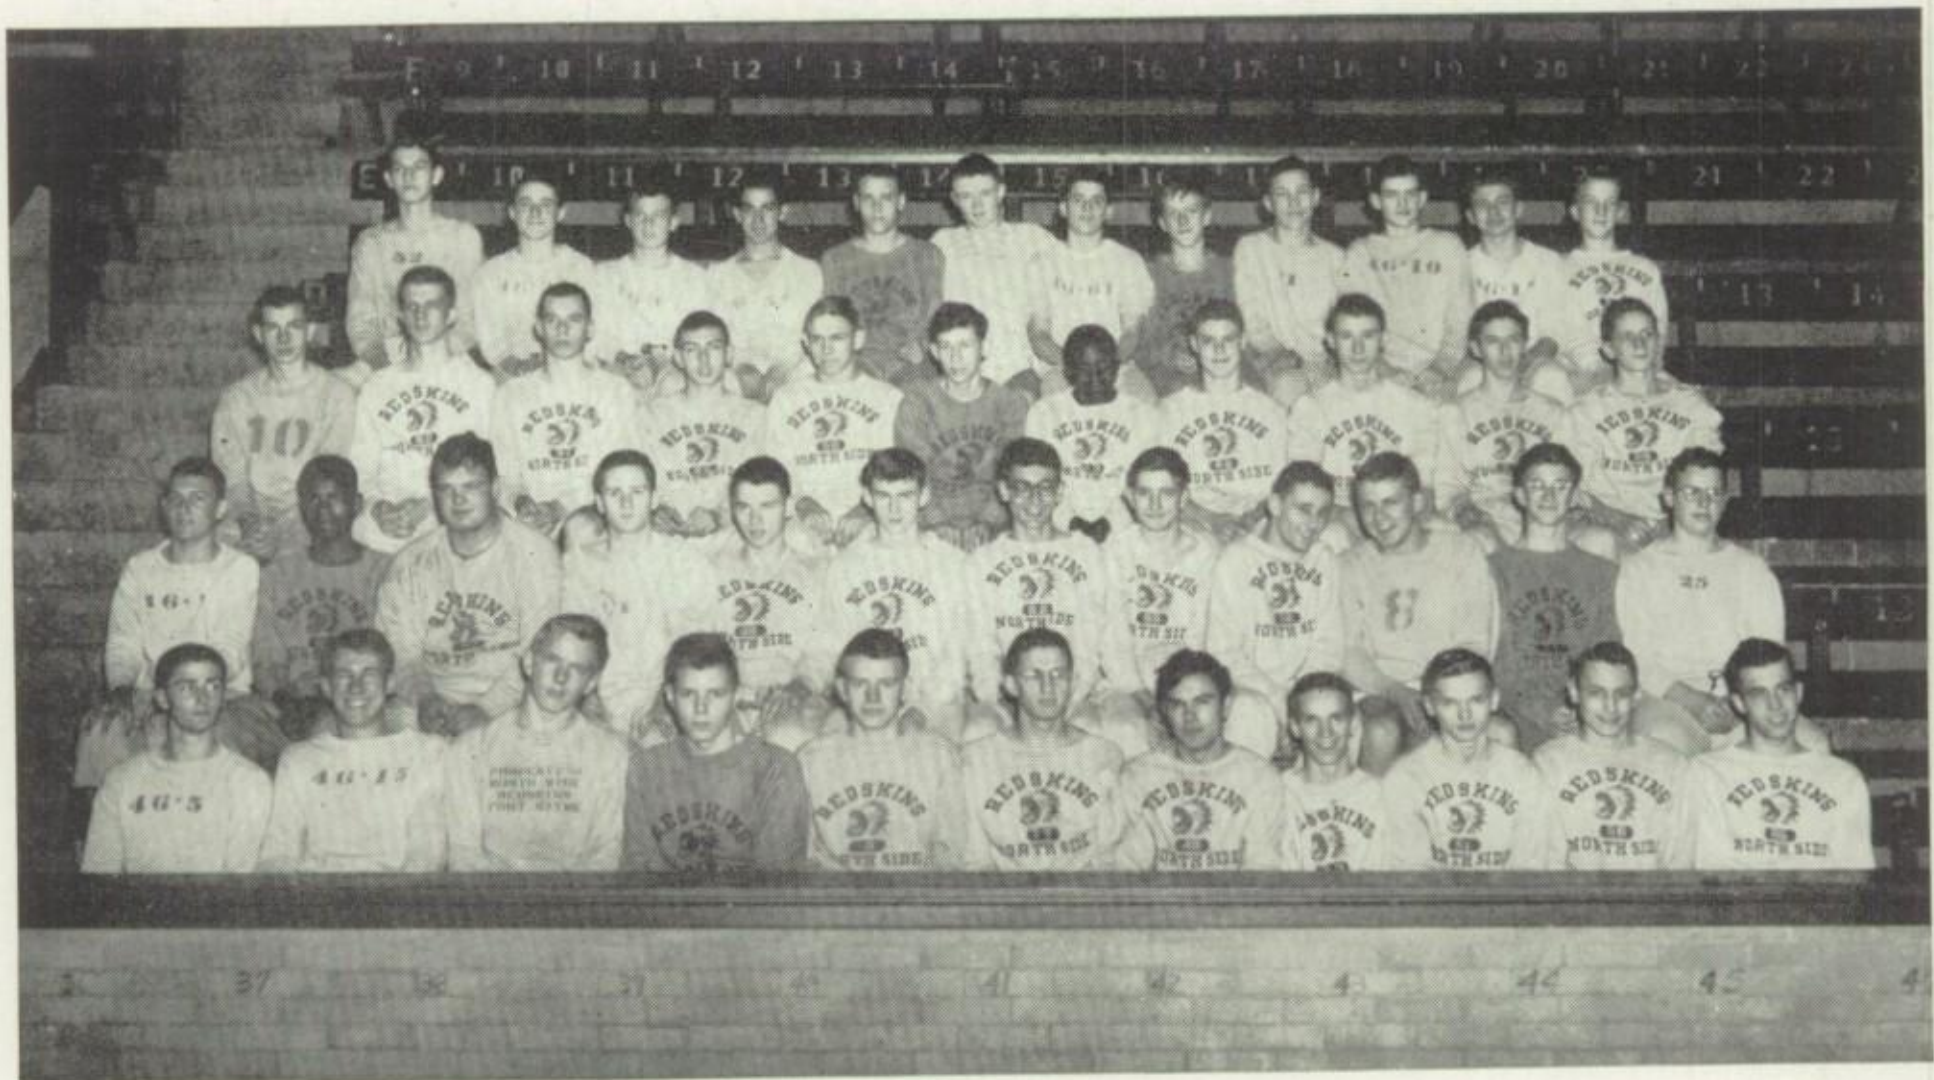

THINLIES MAINTAIN ENVIOUS RECORD

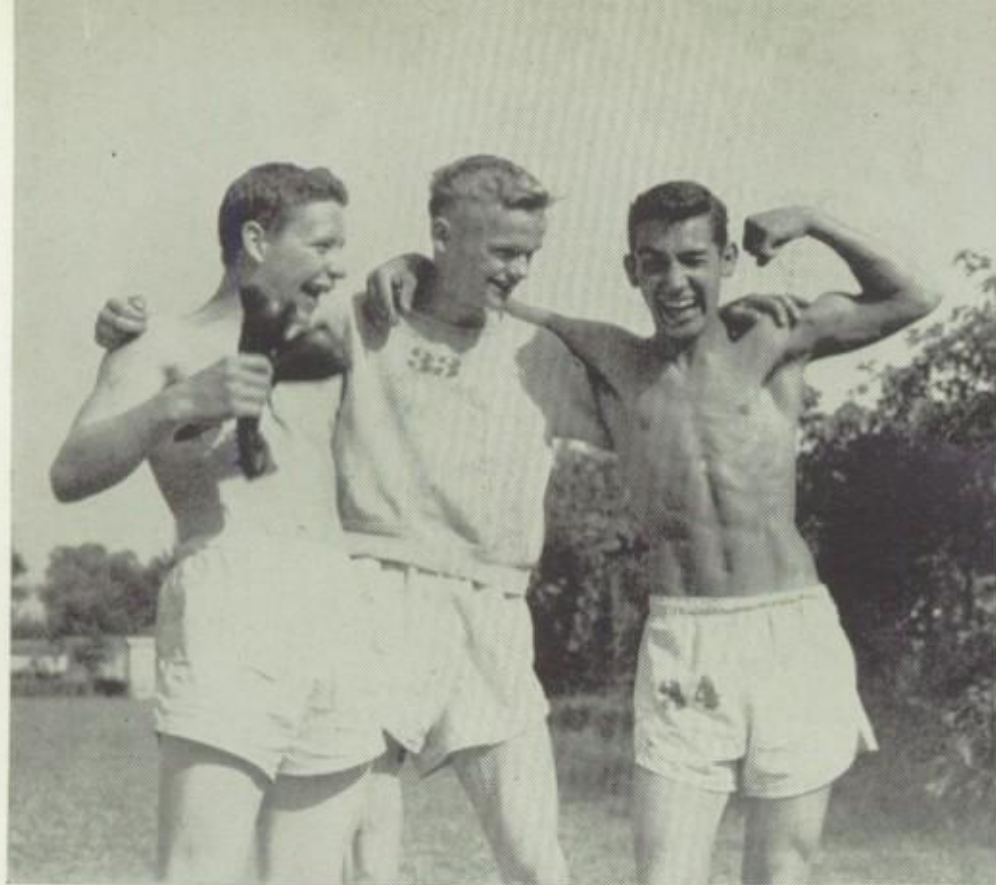

One sport that maintains an envious record at North Side is track. The track teams of North Side have been noted for their talent in winning victories. As each year goes by, Coach Rolla Chambers turns over a fine record for the track team. This year 1951-52 was no exception.

The 880 is handled by Tom Firestine, DeVon Simon, Ed Mosshammer, and Dan Brandt. Running the mill are Bill Griswold, Tom Schmitt, Jim Harford, and Cleatus Griswold. The high hurdles are handled by Clifford Dunton, Don Sanders, Tom Murphy, and Gary McAfee, while the low hurdles are run by Clifford Dunton, Dean Ewing, and Jim Long. Dick Kowalczyk and Byron Pierce manage the shot put while Pres Brown and Gary McAfee take over on pole vaulting. Pres Brown, Gary McAfee, and Charlie Lyons tackle the high jumping field for the Chambersmen. The broad jumping team is composed of Gary McAfee, Ron Thompson, and Jim Long.

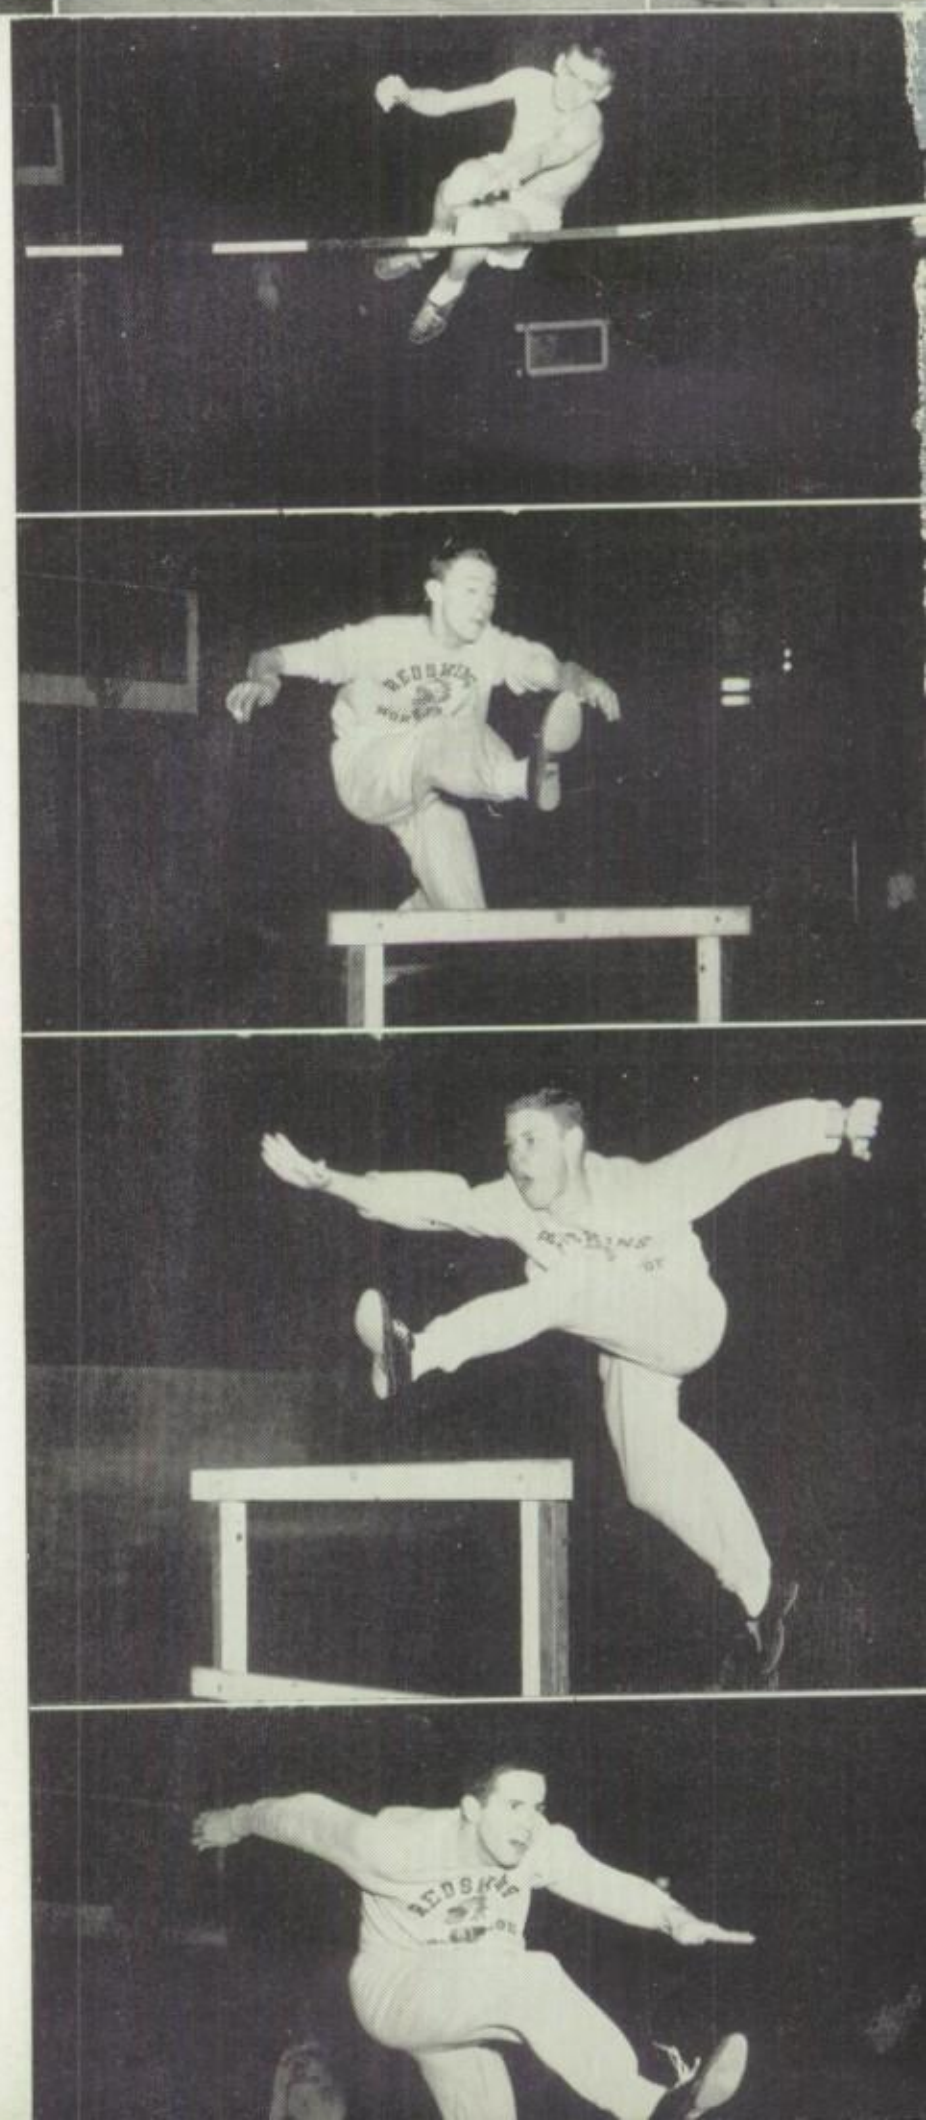

This year the tracksters have been very fortunate in having such excellent reserve and freshman squads. The freshman team consists of Leonard Snider, Jack Mossburg, Charlie Lyons, Jack Vore, Roland Alridge, George Taylor, Dick Plump, Dave Ellison, Glen Belden, Wayne Bauer, Paul Evans, and Gale Goodwin. The only leaving lettermen are Bill Griswold, Bob Prugh, DeVon Simon, Bob Ransburg, and Dallas Rhoads.

North Side has long been honored for her fine runners. In past years, the Chambersmen have scored innumerable victories. The 1951-1952 year was no exception.

In the Sectional Cross Country meet, the hill-and-dale men romped home with a convincing victory. After winning the sectional meet, they then went to state to tie with Bloomington for second place.

VARSITY ATHLETES COMPRISE CLUB, ENJOY MANY SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Numerous North Side athletes pride themselves on the wearing of the big "N", for it is a sign of achievement in athletic competition. For each year of participation on the varsity team a stripe is added on their sleeve, and for each win in conference competition a gold star is added.

Organized in 1949, North Side's Lettermen has grown thrivingly. The group was formed from the old Athletic Club. Any boy earning a letter in football, basketball, track, tennis, or cross country is eligible for membership.

Two of the social functions of the organization are potlucks. One is held during the football season and the other in the midst of the track season.

The coaches are the advisers of the organization. These advisers are Rolla Chambers, athletic director and track coach; Robert Nulf, head football; Robert Traster, assistant football and basketball coach; Clair Motz, head basketball coach; Arthur Rhoads, tennis coach; Don Kemp, track and cross country coach, and Hyrle Ivy, swimming instructor.

Athletic Board

DIRECTORS BACK SPORTS CONTESTS WITH ACCURACY, HOPE, INTEREST

The immediate backers of the athletic contests of skill and sportsmanship are known around the Big Dome as the Athletic Board. This board functions with all the precision and teamwork that any athletic team must have to succeed in competition.

The purposes of the Athletic Board at North Side are to co-ordinate and plan the training, running, and financing of the athletic teams, and to schedule athletic contests. The board is headed by Principal Milton H. Northrop and Athletic Director, Rolla Chambers.

Mr. Leslie Reeves, school treasurer, has handled all the financial aspects of the entire program of athletic events. Mr. Reeves has eliminated many of the problems that usually accompany such a position, due to his accuracy and efficiency.

These gentlemen who guide the destinies of the North Side football, basketball, track, tennis, and cross country teams are Mr. Chambers, Mr. Robert Nulf, Mr. Clair Motz, Mr. Don Kemp, Mr. Noel Whittern, Mr. Robert Edwards, and Mr. Robert Traster. Hyrle Ivy is the man who guides the work of the boys' swimming classes.

GIRL ATHLETES ENJOY ORGANIZATION THAT OPENS MANY FIELDS OF SPORT

The 1951-52 year was a bustling one for the members of the Girls' Athletic Association. Many North Side girls have become active in this organization because of the wide field of sports which it opens to them.

Organization of the G.A.A. rested in the hands of the club officers who were Dorothy Ziegler, president, and Nancy Powers, vice-president. Bonnie Johnson, Doris Ramp, Sue Stockamp, and Sandra Burry have assisted the officers considerable this year. The ever-important positions of advisers are filled by Miss Margaret Spiegel and Miss Ruth Carroll.

Fall activities for the year included archery, tennis, softball, and swimming. The winter activities were filled with class tournaments and class teams in basketball. The next activity was the aquacade, presented to the school in the spring. In the late spring season, tumbling, track, and softball were again popular.

The award system in G.A.A. gives numerals for one hundred and fifty points, letters for two hundred and fifty points, and the state award engraved with the student's name. The girl with the largest amount of points is awarded a trophy on Recognition Day. A trophy is also given to a senior girl who has shown the best sportsmanship during her four years at high school.

The main event of the year is the spring banquet in May. This year the G.A.A. celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the school. An alumni group was present for this important meeting. This alumni group was organized last year with Betty Rabus Royer acting as president, and Delores Cattin, first secretary. Miss Hilda Schwehn, a member of the faculty at Purdue University and the organizer of the North Side G.A.A., was the guest speaker.

These pictures show the girls of G.A.A. in the various after-school activities. Volleyball, swimming, badminton, tennis, archery, and softball are only a few of the things offered to those girls interested in becoming members of Girl's Athletic Association. A calendar of events is always posted outside the girl's gym and the news of the day is always given over the public address in the morning. The G.A.A. offers so many types of sports that at one time or other there is something of interest for everyone.
